

An abstract geometric composition featuring several overlapping, light gray polygons on a white background. The shapes are defined by thin black outlines. The composition includes a large, irregular polygon in the center-right, a smaller triangle to its left, and various other polygons of different sizes and orientations scattered around, creating a layered, architectural feel. The overall effect is minimalist and modern.

(6 pieces)